

Analyst (international projects) – 12 months' FTC

Are you:

- An excellent communicator, able to give confident and well-structured presentations and run efficient and productive meetings?
- Adept at producing clear, concise and analytical written reports, with excellent attention to detail?
- Well organised, able to organise your time and work across multiple projects in tandem to meet deadlines?
- Fluent in English?
- A graduate from a UK University?

Would you like to:

- Forge a career in a dynamic, progressive organisation by providing expert advice on international qualifications and skills?
- Develop specialist knowledge of the UK and international education systems?
- Contribute positively to the understanding, development and quality improvement of international qualifications?

...then we would like to hear from you.

Who we are and what we do:

Ecctis delivers a wide range of services, products and projects in the field of international education. We help make sense of international qualifications and support a range of clients including individuals, universities and colleges, awarding bodies and government ministries.

The work is varied and the atmosphere is enthusiastic, collegiate, and supportive. There are opportunities to develop specialisms and to lead research and training for countries and regions.

The role:

As an Analyst working on our vocational education review projects you will work closely with our International Research and Global Partnerships teams to support delivery of a growing portfolio of projects, particularly in China and Asia. This will involve researching UK and international qualifications, liaising with external subject and quality experts to review vocational education programmes, coordinating findings and recommendations and providing supplementary analysis; ensuring clients receive high quality, clear and concise reports. Full training will be given.

The role will involve extensive external liaison so you should be a confident and skilled communicator, able to deliver clear and well-structured presentations, able to support development of collaborative relationships and adapt your communication style to different audiences. Ideally you will have at least two years' experience in research or qualitative analysis and a passion for education.

Ecctis Limited offers excellent opportunities for promotion and career development. There are opportunities to develop specialisms, to lead projects and to develop and provide external training.
